

Home > News > Register

Personal Registration: INPUT 2012

INPUT has organised international television's most important and influential annual screening conference for more than 35 years. This unique event — held in a different country each year — encourages the development of public service television by screening and debating the most outstanding programmes from around the world.

INPUT 2012, Sydney will present screening and discussion sessions with approx. 80 programmes from about 30 countries around the world.

As a registered delegate you will have access to all sessions and special evening events taking place in the framework of INPUT 2012.

The participation fee is €100.

The event will start Monday, 7 May and end Friday, 11 May.

Information about the conference time table, hotels, ground transportation arrangements and visa regulations are available on the INPUT 2012 website: ▶▶http://www.inputsydney.com

▶▶REGISTRATION WEBSITE

Registration Guide

On the ▶▶registration website you will be asked to fill out your details, and to pay the registration fee of €100,-

You can pay the registration fee using VISA or MasterCard (with 3-D Secure) credit cards.

Please, take your time and let the online process guide you without a rush.

After finalising the registration you will receive a confirmation by email which will be sent to the email address you provided in the registration process.

If you have any difficulties with the registration - please do not hesitate to @contact us. Please help us by supplying the the following data:

1. Your name
2. Your country
3. Your e-mail address
4. Approximate time for your registration
5. Description of the error
6. Error message (if any) on your screen

Final Steps

Once you have received your confirmation mail, please print it out and bring it along to the conference to simplify the process on site. Upon arrival at the ▶▶conference venue, please pick up your conference material, registration kit and badge using this receipt.

Please join the discussion about the upcoming conference on the INPUT ▶▶Facebook page. For Conference updates - the INPUT ▶▶twitter account is also a great resource.

Please go ahead, and book your shuttle pass and mid-week party ticket ▶▶here.

We look forward to meet you personally in Sydney in May!